County reopens Oracle Clinic

The clinic's new front door. Lauren Carnes | CANP

It was a long time coming, but the newly renovated Oracle Public Health Clinic has reopened with some new services, including a new family advocacy area used by detectives from the Pinal County Sheriff's Office and attorneys from the Pinal County Attorney's Office for interviewing families or children in domestic situations where law enforcement is involved.

Also introduced at the clinic are environmental services offered by the Pinal County Public Health Department.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

No Solar Farm in San Manuel

I first heard of this solar field proposal a few days ago at the San Manuel Community Center.

After researching the impacts that solar fields would have on our community, I propose that we move this right along to a different location. We do not need the water pollution, land clearing, negative effects on health, wildlife, temperature increase, and so on. This would also have a negative impact on the value of our home and there was no mention of financial compensation.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jennifer Ruderman

Copper Corridor Fire Districts and

By T.C. Brown
Copper Area News

The day seemed appropriate to gather at the Living Word Chapel in Oracle on May 4, 2024, for the Copper Corridor Fire District and Departments Cadet Ceremony. Thirteen Cadets representing various departments from the Copper Corridor completed Firefighter I and II training and were recognized on what is also International Firefighters Day. Family, friends, coworkers and community members gathered to congratulate all on their impressive accomplishment.

A total of 13 local area firefighters completed the arduous 12-week Firefighter I & II course sponsored by the Oracle Fire District. On top of the course, each Cadet successfully completed required Firefighter I and II certification examinations conducted by the Office of the Arizona State Fire Marshal. The friends and connections made during this training will last the Cadets a lifetime.

Oracle Fire District Chief Robert Jennings congratulated the group on the successful completion as well as welcomed them to the unique Firefighter Brother and Sisterhood. Course instructor Sam Peterson expressed his admiration for the accomplishment as well as challenged them to strive for better in their future endeavors. Both speakers shared their appreciation to the family members who have sacrificed as their loved ones pursue their calling. The class presented custom made plaques to both Chief Jennings and Instructor Peterson.

The topics covered in the training were designed to equip students with the knowledge and practical skills necessary for certification as entry-level firefighters. Additional course material provided these emergency responders with the ability to identify emergency scenes and respond to releases or potential releases of hazardous materials as part of the initial response to the incident for the purpose of protecting nearby persons, the environment, or property from the effects of the release.

Members of the Firefighting families and communities of Mammoth, Oracle, San Manuel and Superior were on hand to recognize the accomplishments of the Cadets. Those successfully completing the training include: J. Castro, L. Cota, M. Cruz, V. Dull, N. Gaona, J. Hernandez, B. McGinnis, T. Neville, A. Rodriguez, R. Vallee, C. Velasquez, G. Velasquez and T. Whitehouse. You are all appreciated for completing this course and for following your calling.

Chief Jennings expressed appreciation to several individuals and businesses throughout the Copper Corridor who were part of making this course a success. Those mentioned include: Chief Perez of Superior, Catalina Towing, Oracle CERT, Louis of Rancho Meat Market, Tri City Fire District in Globe, Oracle Fire Crews, Queen Valley Fire, San Carlos Fire, city and county officials, and more. He also expressed appreciation to the families of the Cadets and the students themselves for their dedication. A special appreciation was expressed for the Course Instructor Sam Peterson.

These 13 men and women who devoted their time and energy to this endeavor show a rare and special trait. Perhaps Instructor Peterson expressed it best when describing HEART.

H = Honor

E = Ethics

A = Accountability

R = Responsibility

T = Trust & Integrity

Thank you to each Cadet for wanting to make a difference in the communities you live in and now serve. Thanks for sharing your heart with us all.

Copper Corridor Fire Districts Cadets recently completed the requirements for Firefighter I and II.

Reminder: Intermittent daytime lane restrictions on US 60 east of Superior begin May 6

Upcoming full closure of US 60 begin May 15; drivers can expect long detour

The Arizona Department of Transportation reminds drivers to plan for frequent intermittent daytime lane restrictions lasting approximately 15 minutes on US 60 east of Superior, between milepost 227-231, for construction activities as the US 60, Queen Creek and Waterfall Canyon Bridges Replacement Project begins.

Drivers should prepared for:

- Onsite flaggers and a pilot car to direct drivers through the work zone.
- A 14-foot vehicle width restriction to be in place. Oversize loads may be accommodated with advance notice.
- The speed limit will be reduced in the work zone.

Starting May 15, full closures of US 60 will begin between Superior and Miami on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. for rock blasting. During the full closures of US 60, traffic will be detoured on state routes 77 and 177. Due to the roughly 75-mile length of this detour, drivers may want to consider planning travel before 9 a.m. and after 2 p.m.

For more information about this project and to sign up for notifications about this project, please visit azdot.gov/US60QueenCreekBridgeProject.

Drivers should allow extra travel time and be prepared to slow down, use caution and merge safely when approaching and traveling through highway work zones.

Holocaust survivor speaks at El Rancho Robles

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Copper Area News

On Friday, May 3, a group of more than 30 people gathered at El Rancho Robles in Oracle for an intimate, informative, and inspirational talk by Dirk Van Leenen, a Holocaust survivor, and author of a book trilogy on the subject, Resistance on a Bicycle, The Americans are Coming!!! The Last Hope to End the War in Holland, and The Last Train to the Concentration Camp: A Small Boy's Memories on the Train to Bergen-Belsen.

Van Leenen, born 1940, in the Netherlands, was just a child during World War II. Coming to Arizona in 1985, after accepting a horticulture job, Dirk met his current wife, and has been in the Phoenix Area ever since. Van Leenen credited his children, and grandchildren for inspiring him to write his stories, after recounting his experience of the war times to them.

"Once you start, there's no stopping," he told the crowd about telling his story.

During his presentation, he recalled what it was like living in Holland as a young boy during the Nazi occupation: food and water scarcity, lack of electricity, and persecution just for their faith. His father was a member of the Dutch Resistance, and his family would help fellow Jewish people who needed hiding. He recalled his house being searched by Nazis when he was just 3 years old. The Nazis weren't able to find the hiding place because their secret passageway wasn't in a typical place, Van Leenen explained. It was behind the toilet.

On average, there would be about 20 people in hiding. His family and the resistance helped save over 1,000 people with acts of courage and bravery.

Even as a child, Dirk played his part, occasionally smuggling food for others under his clothing, while sitting on the back of his father's bike. He even had his own garden in their backyard at just the age of 4.

He told the story of his father being tailed by the Nazis close to the end of the war. His father was arrested after attempting to alert other resistance safe houses that they were being watched, and needed to be careful. He recalled crying after seeing how badly they tortured his father, as his mother tended the wounds. That's when he talked about being placed on a train, and taken to a concentration camp, during what would be the last month of the war.

"I still see those bodies at night every once and a while," he told the crowd.

Eventually, the concentration camp he was in was liberated by the British. His family then made their way back to Holland, where they continued to help the Dutch Resistance until the war was finally over.

The crowd sat fully invested in his tales of his family's resilience and perseverance in the face of persecution and bigotry.

After his presentation, he asked if the crowd had any questions. One member of the crowd asked him how long it was, after the war, before everything felt normal, to which Van Leenen responded that it took over a year before it became a little normal.

He offered a special deal on his books to those in attendance, reminding them to pass on these stories, because they needed to be told, and they needed to be heard.

Dirk Van Leenen, a Holocaust survivor and author, spoke at El Rancho Robles in Oracle.

Tiger-Mammoth 1960 Eighth Grade Class Reunion

The majority of the Alumni who attended the Tiger-Mammoth 1960 8th Grade Class Reunion on Sunday, March 17, were in kindergarten together in the town of Tiger. In 1954, they ceased to be Tigers and became Mammoths, as the town of Tiger was condemned, abandoned and razed due to underground mining, which caused the students to be relocated to Mammoth Elementary School.

“We started school in a town that no longer exists, Tiger, AZ, and we’re still together,” said Lydia Soto. “We are still making an effort to stay in touch since kindergarten.”

Meeting at La Casita in Mammoth, the former students commenced their reunion with a moment of silence, followed by event MC and Class Veteran Luciano Torrez leading them in honoring deceased alumni.

Seven alumni gathered to reflect on past memories, embracing the importance of celebrating old friendships that were formed in their youth and which have endured for 64 years.

The first reunion was held in 1994 because Hortencia Garcia, Lydia Soto and Luciano Torrez felt the need strongly for one. Nancy Cardell, Barbara Miranda and other classmates helped to organize it. There were 22 alumni, plus families who attended, totaling up to over 100 persons who gathered to share inspiring stories of yesteryear and of classmates who have overcome adversities to achieve success.

Luciano Torrez commented, “If there was just one classmate left, he would be there, because our group is more of a family bond than friendship!”

This year’s attendees were Maria Christine Perez, Carmen Aguilar, Manuel Ayala, Martha Corona, Elvira Rendon, Luciano Torrez and Lydia Soto. Fifteen alumni were unable to attend.

Manny Corona, Hortencia Garcia and James Lee Taylor are classmates who passed away this year. Sadly, the group learned of another classmate’s passing just last week, Raymond Diaz.

The attendees wish to extend a special
