OBITUARIES

Margaret Anne Sloan

Margaret Anne Sloan, 84, passed away due to dementia on Nov. 16, 2024, in Tucson. She was born on March 2, 1940, to Adele (Hood) and Mabry Collins in Houston, Texas. Throughout her life, she embraced numerous roles that highlighted her diverse talents and kind-hearted spirit. Margaret Sloan's life was well-lived, filled with love, laughter, and the pursuit of knowledge. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Margaret is preceded in death by her parents, Mabry Collins and Adele Herring; stepfather, Barney Herring; husband, Bob; son, Sean; siblings, Arlene, Loretta and Louis; and grandsons, Damon and Michael.

She is survived by her daughters, Letha, Roberta and Arletta; grandchildren, Andrew, Tiffany, Braden, Jason, Erica, Morgan, Jordan and Mitchel; brother, Charles; sister-in-law, Diana Sloan; and many nieces, nephews, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, and one great-great-great-grandchild.

In 1959, while working at the USPS in Houston, Margaret met her beloved Robert Kaye, soon to become Bob Sloan, through a co-worker who was helping them with paperwork. When Margaret met Robert (Bob) in 1959 at the USPS where they worked they bonded over the fact that she had been adopted by her stepfather and he was working on being adopted by his. Love blossomed quickly, they married soon after meeting and within the space of one year their first child, Letha, was born, fairly quickly followed by Roberta and then Sean. Margaret and Bob decided to move to Alaska, where Bob had previously been stationed in the Air Force. They established their family near Palmer, where their children attended school. Their youngest child, Arletta, was born a few years later, in Alaska.

Margaret and Bob moved their children to Seward for the winter, for a few years, so that they could both attend the University of Alaska and Seward Community College. There, Margaret furthered her education and learned to speak German. Returning to the Palmer area full time, it was a rough life, with no running water, often no electricity and Margaret literally keeping the home fires burning in the wood stove, while Bob worked where he could until he finally got a job on the Alaska Pipeline which required him to be away from home for extended periods of time. Once her children were all in school, Margaret began working outside the home again.

Margaret is known for her intelligence, creativity and determination to get things done. When she moved to Mammoth, she took out a 30-year loan on a house, but had it paid off in six. She worked for the USPS in Houston, drove a school bus in Palmer and working at the Mammoth Public Library for a time after Margaret retired and several members of the Sloan family moved to Mammoth. Her career was as an Accounting Clerk for the State of Alaska in the Department of Natural Resources where she received numerous commendations and promotions.

Margaret was an avid reader and doer of puzzles, enjoyed knitting, sewing, painting, and drawing. She hunted, gardened and enjoyed nature walks, often with children and grandchildren.

She believed it was important for children to be surrounded by music, good books, and art. Though agnostic, Margaret respected the beliefs of others and encouraged her children to explore the possibilities, without prejudice.

Plans for a memorial will be announced at a later time. Margaret will be cremated, with her ashes to be returned to Alaska, where she spent most of her life with her family. The family is being helped by 'After'.

catechism, was a longtime member of the Club Social de Damas, and ended her career working at the Superior Public Library alongside her best friend, Josie Campos.

Most of all she enjoyed spending time with family and watching football every weekend. Mom loved her ASU Sun Devils, Arizona Cardinals and the Dallas Cowboys because her Mijos are Cowboys fans. Lucy enjoyed working on puzzles, diamond painting, cooking, baking, reading, playing lottery scratchers with her daughter, and attending Little Joe y La Familia concerts with her children.

Arizona Historical Society announces 2024 Al Mérito Award winners; Oracle woman named

The Arizona Historical Society is proud to announce the recipients of the prestigious Al Mérito Award for 2024. Established in 1973, this award recognizes individuals and organizations that have made outstanding contributions to preserving and promoting Arizona's rich history.

The Al Mérito Award, named after a nineteenth-century honor bestowed by the newly independent government of Mexico for meritorious service, translates to "for merit." It represents the Arizona Historical Society's highest honor, acknowledging those who serve as role models in the preservation and celebration of Arizona's history. Following a thorough review of all nominations, the AHS Board of Directors selects deserving individuals and organizations to receive the Al Mérito Award annually. The contributions of this year's honorees exemplify the spirit of dedication and excellence that the award represents.

Catherine Ellis of Oracle was one of the recipients of this award.

Catherine's volunteerism, done in the service of documenting and preserving history, is evidence of her dedication to the historical field. Catherine has assisted the Oracle Historical Society (OHS) for many years by documenting and organizing its collection of artifacts, books, documents and photographs. She has written articles for the OHS newsletter and contributed her significant knowledge to various OHS exhibits and displays related to this area's rich history.

Catherine is also active with the Oracle Cemetery Association, Inc. (OCAI) as a volunteer and board member. She manages the OCAI grave registry and has placed more than 175 Oracle names on the Find-a-Grave website, linking names, adding photos, and creating memorials across the nation. She actively identifies unmarked graves, locates and marks unidentified gravesites, and obtains updated GPS information.

Catherine's volunteerism and attention to accurate historic detail has been invaluable to OHS, OCAI, our community, and Arizona.

Other award winners are:

- Cave Creek Museum (Executive Director Kathy Dwyer)
- Raul and Gloria Jean Ramirez
- Shannon Rossiter

Since its inception, the Al Mérito Award has honored those who have gone above and beyond in their efforts to preserve Arizona's history. Shop local this holiday season and support our local small businesses

The holiday season is once again upon us. It is easy to get caught up planning long trips into the metro areas for the latest deals at big box retailers. But right here in our own communities of the Copper Corridor you can find an assortment of gifts, services and experiences for just about everyone on your gift list. When we shop local, more of our dollars stay in the local economy, which helps to fund important community needs. For every $100 dollars you spend at a locally owned business, $68 stays in the local economy.

There is a growing trend to avoid traditional gifts and give the gift of experiences or services. Why not purchase tickets or memberships to one of our local attractions like the Arizona Zipline Adventures, Boyce Thompson Arboretum, Biosphere II or Oracle State Park? Each of these attractions have gift shops with unique jewelry, art and sundries as well.

From authentic Mexican food, Italian, Barbecue and American style food, there are choices for every palate. For the foodie in your life, how about a customized gift basket featuring local honey, local wines, lavender products combined with fresh fruits and vegetables from our local grocery stores!

The downtown shopping districts in Superior, Oracle and Kearny have a variety of unique shops, art galleries and restaurants. Unique art, foods and crafts can be found at the Superior Farm to Fantastic Market or any of the local holiday bazaars in the area. Local popup markets are also a source for unique gifts. On Dec. 7, there will be three markets in the Oracle, San Manuel and Mammoth area.

- San Manuel Street Market at the Community Presbyterian Church, 801 S. McNab Pkwy., San Manuel; 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- Parradise Ranch Holiday Market at Sue & Jerry's Ranch Store, 1015 W. American Ave., Oracle; 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

• Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church Christmas Market, 122 Church Dr., Mammoth; 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The gift of wellness and relaxation is another creative gift. There are multiple massage therapists and day spas in the Copper Corridor that offer gift cards for new and existing clients.

The gift of time is also something that can be a gift from the heart: make a date for hike, a picnic at the Gila River park in Winkelman or any of the local parks in the area. Volunteering at a local organization or making a financial contribution in honor of someone on your gift list is another way to give a gift that will have long lasting impact.

Fill-A-Bowl 2024 fills more than bowls

The Superior High School Future Business Leaders of America hosted their annual Fill-A Bowl fundraiser to benefit the Superior Food Bank on Friday, Nov. 15. This year the students once again raised over $2,000 for the food bank. The event featured several soups, salad and dessert.

Xzaylea "Zay Zay" Membrila is the first to mail her letter to Santa Claus.

Debbie Torres | CANP

Young girl first to send letter to Santa for Christmas

Santa Claus has once again teamed up with the Superior Sun and Save Money Market to collect the letters for all Superior children who want to send their letters to Santa.

Xzaylea "Zay Zay" Membrila was the first to write her letter to Santa Claus and wants to encourage all the children of Superior to drop off their letters at the special mailbox at Save Money Market. All letter received at the magic mailbox at Save Money Market will be published in the Superior Sun on Dec. 18.

Zay Zay shared her letter to Santa with the Superior Sun. She would love a toy bunny (just like her toy puppy), more toys like her ini Barbie's. She also wants a baby sister.

Zay Zay is the daughter of Javier and Maribel and she just turned 3 years old.

The traditional mailbox drop off is located at the Save Money Market. Children wishing to send an email may send it to cbnsun@minersunbasin.com. Letters must be received by Thursday, Dec. 12, 2024, in order to be published in the Dec. 18, 2024, edition of the Superior Sun.

This year, Mr. Claus has given us permission to accept letters through our Facebook page (www.Facebook.com/CopperArea). Just send us a message (PM) with your child's letter to Santa.

Hurry and get your letters in quickly so they can be forwarded to the North Pole in plenty of time for the big day. The deadline to mail letters in Santa's special mailbox is Dec. 12. Santa needs time to get all the requests fulfilled.
