Hang out at the Hayden Library

Copper Area News

Hayden Library has been hosting events for as long as anyone can remember. Known mostly for their "Storytime," which is geared towards children, they also have events that are sure to be of interest to teens, and even adults.

"We try to do something for everyone" Bea Bejarano, Lead Librarian, said.

At a recent class on "Glass Suncatchers," the library provided mandala themed window clings, and acrylic markers needed to color them in. While watching magic, this reporter sat down with Bea to learn about some other events they are hosting.

They currently have a "Forensics: Solve the Crime" class. This is a four-part class in which teenagers take on the role of a forensic technician to solve a homicide. This includes learning to write case studies, preparing a suspect profile, learning to analyze fiber, hair, fingerprints and handwriting, learning how to blood type, and finally a conclusion on who the murderer is.

They also host Lego Build Days, Cooking classes, Age Friendly Movement classes, and other events

Bea was especially proud of their University of Arizona Student Teen Advisory Board. It is hosted at the library once a month. This event is for teens 13-16 years old, is catered by Maria's, and participants are paid to attend.

"We would love to see more people come out and take advantage of what the library has to offer," said Bea. "We try not to be like your typical library where all you do is read books and have to be quiet."

She said they have all kinds of everyday activities as well, such as sports equipment and board games.

"We really wanted to start a chess club, but only two people showed up. To register as a club, we need at least three," she explained. "We have even tried doing things such as Bingo and other events for Adults and Seniors as well."

So next time you are looking for something to do, give a call to Hayden Library at (928)200-2997 or stop in and get a calendar of their monthly events. They would love to see you there. Classes are open to anyone in the Copper Corridor.

These two ladies had some fun being creative making mandala-themed suncatchers at the Hayden Library.

OBITUARIES

Jessie Mae Gould

Jessie Mae Gould was called home to the Lord on Monday, Dec. 23, 2024, at the age of 88. Born in Seale, Alabama on Sept. 19, 1936, to Willie Austin and Marie Williams, she was raised by her mother and grandparents Harmon and Gertrude Williams in Georgia.

She started working at the age of 12 years old and had many jobs throughout her life. She had a love of learning and never stopped reading and asking questions.

She met her husband Donald Gould when he was stationed in Fort Benning, Georgia. She was working in a German restaurant at the time. They lived all over the southern United States while Don was in the Army, settling in Tacoma, Washington for several years. They married in Reno, Nevada on Oct. 6, 1977.

They moved to Kearny, Arizona in 1984 when Donald's job transferred them.

Jessie lived in Kearny for 40 years. She enjoyed camping, fishing and loved to try her luck in the casinos.

She was a very lucky person and even won a new car once.

Jessie was a longtime member of the San Pedro Valley Baptist Church where she had many good friends. She made friends easily, was fun loving and had a quick smile. She was very generous and willing to share with anyone in need.

Jessie is preceded in death by her husband, Donald Gould; her brother, David Lee Miles; and her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Thomas and Ginger Gould.

She is survived by her niece, Judy Gould and her husband Woody of Oxford, Maine; her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, John and Ramona Gould of Auburn, Maine; her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Bill and Becky Gould of Minot, Maine; many nieces, nephews, and great nieces and nephews and great-great nieces and nephews.

Her family would like to mention her caregiver Hailey who took great care of her for several years and helped them make sure she had everything she needed.

Jessie lived a full life and enjoyed her life on her terms.

Funeral services honoring Jessie's life were celebrated on Friday, Jan. 10, 2025, at The Fortin & Pinette Group in Lewiston, Maine. Committal services will then be held later in the Spring at North Auburn Cemetery.

Jessie's church family at San Pedro Valley Baptist Church in Dudleyville will hold a Celebration of Life on Feb. 1 at 11 a.m. followed by a potluck.

Johnny Ripley Johnson Sr.

Our beloved dad, brother, uncle, grandfather, neighbor and friend, Johnny R. Johnson Sr. passed away in Tucson on Dec. 18, 2024, just one week after his 84th birthday. Johnny was born in Jackson, Ohio on Dec. 11, 1940, to his loving parents, Freda Mae and Homer Bryan Johnson; he was one of 10 children.

He is survived by his two sons, Johnny R. Johnson Jr. (Kerri) and Clarence Bryan Johnson (Pam); grandchildren, Kourtney Whipple (JW), Tilynn Martineau (Brian), Jacob Johnson (Chelsie), Tanner Johnson (Jenna), Wyatt Johnson (Cam), Morgan Ledgard (Anthony), Chandler Johnson and Zane Johnson; and great-grandchildren, BJ (Kalen) Martineau, Brooke Martineau, Waylon Martineau, Haidyn Johnson, Quade Whipple, Bridger Johnson, Cole Johnson, Laikyn Whipple, Weston Martineau, Chayce Johnson and Barrett Johnson.

Johnny grew up on a farm outside of Jackson, where he helped with all the family chores. He especially loved tractor work and maintenance on the tractors. He had a fascination with tractors even later in life. One of his favorite memories of growing up on the farm was at harvest time when friends and neighbors would gather for large harvest picnics.

After high school, Johnny served in the military. He was very proud of the time he spent serving his country and loved conversing with fellow veterans about his military experiences. He worked for Magma Copper Company, the Pinal County Sheriff's Department, and lastly for the Mammoth-San Manuel School District. He really enjoyed working for the District; he had a knack for fixing things and enjoyed maintenance work.

Johnny was a loving and devoted father to his two sons Johnny and Bryan. He made sure he and his boys had fun and exciting adventures for their weekends, holidays and summer vacations together. Some of their favorite stomping grounds were Old Tucson, Tombstone, the Desert Museum, the circle races and as many trips out to the desert as possible.

Johnny was invited by his best friend (Bob Kaye) who he met in the Army to come to Arizona after being discharged from the military. So after going home to Ohio to visit his family, he drove his 1960 Ford to Arizona, driving the side of the desert mountains on the old one lane dirt road from Globe to Mammoth. He fell deeply in love with the desert and loved everything old west and cowboy. He made San Manuel his home and then later on moved to Mammoth, which he called home for the rest of his life. Johnny built the facilities for the Mammoth shooting range, where he also acted as range master, scheduled shooting events, maintenance guy and caretaker. He was very proud of his work there. He was also an amazing marksman.

He absolutely loved his humble residence in the desert, this was his little kingdom of all the things he loved. He also loved the people of Mammoth and surrounding communities. He had many friends and he helped many people that he didn't even know, always handing out money or buying meals for people on a daily basis. Spending time with his family was at the top of his list, his boys and their families enjoyed many memorable adventures with him. Some of these adventures included cruising the desert in the Rhinos, watching the drag races and circle track races, outbowling everyone at the bowling alley and outshooting everyone at the shooting range. We will miss you, Grandpa Johnson.

Funeral Services will be held at the Mammoth Community Center on Jan. 18, 2025, at 11 a.m.

Matthew Wesley Rowe

Matthew Wesley Rowe, formerly of Athens, Ohio, passed on Christmas Day, Dec. 25, 2024. Matt was born in Waco Texas on April 18, 1956, into a military family stationed at Connelly Air Base to an Air Force Navigator father, Wesley J. Rowe, and Air Force Nurse mother, Doris N Rowe. A year later he had a younger brother, Marshall, and a few years after that they moved to Pease Air Force Base in New Hampshire where his remaining three siblings, Sharron, Chris and Cathy, were born. In 1966 they moved to Athens, Ohio, first living in a cabin at Lake Hope before moving into a house on Avon Place. Maybe this start to his life is what formed the future lifestyle he lived.

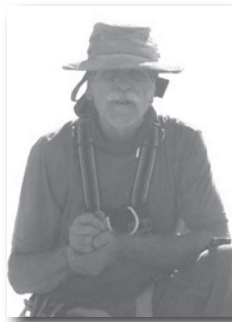

Matt graduated in 1974 after attending Athens High School/Tri County Joint Vocational School for Agricultural Mechanics. At the age of 16/17 Matt was actually a door bouncer at bars along Court Street keeping people older than himself out of them. Matthew also served in the Ohio Civil Air Patrol for several years. He then moved to Mt. Holly, New Jersey, spending several years working as a heavy equipment mechanic before moving to St Petersburg, FL where he met his partner/wife of 42 years, Sheree Christen.

Matt's siblings eventually nicknamed him 'Traveling Matt from Fragglerock' because often it was never known where he was, or where/when he'd show up. Living a somewhat nomadic lifestyle, he eventually moved to rugged Arizona. For a few years he and Sheree even lived in a tent at a campground before settling down in Superior.

He was a hardworking man who started his own business, Rowe's Remodeling, while also donating his time cooking for Firefighters, and was also a butcher at Ron's Market. While there, Matt and Sheree had two sons, Matthew and Joshua. Eventually winding up in Apache Junction, AZ, Matt enjoyed shooting, fishing, and spending countless hours prospecting/panning for gold.

Matthew died in his own home after a long illness with his partner/wife and sons by his side. He is survived by his wife, Sheree Christen Rowe; sons, Matthew and Joshua Rowe; father, Wesley J. Rowe; siblings, Marshall Rowe, Sharron Rowe Diedrichsen, Christopher Rowe and Catherine Rowe Thompson; and many nieces, nephews, and great nieces and nephews. He also loved his various birds over the years and is also survived by his most recent, Peaches, the parrot.

A Good Sam-aritan

Copper Area News

Everyone in the Kearny area knows Sam Horton. Many know him as the “grave digger,” funeral home worker, and a maintenance worker for the Kearny Cemetery. People describe him as quiet, kind, always willing to lend a hand when needed, always there, and has even been called a “Gentle Giant.” Sam is also known to spend a lot of his time watching over the communities loved ones at the Cemetery.

Sam is employed by Bulman Family Funeral Homes, LLC. You know them as the local businesses, Griffith Mortuary and Superior Funeral Home. We see him when he picks up our dearly departed from our homes and hospitals, he helps us pick out where we are going to lay our loved ones to rest, and even at the local cemeteries as we say our final goodbyes. However, when it comes to these cemeteries, that is the only part he is paid for.

You see, Kearny Cemetery is not owned by Griffith Mortuary.

Yet, almost at any given time, you can find Sam at the cemetery. Cleaning up garbage, rearranging flowers that have been blown away, trimming trees, cleaning the road of debris and brush. But what you may not know, is this is his own time, without pay. He does this out of the kindness of his heart. Ensuring that our loved ones are truly resting in peace.

Visit with Sam at the cemetery as he checks up on things and he will tell you which families have come recently and placed new flowers, decorated recently, new headstones, new concrete work. He even stated he could tell that someone came and removed some solar lights that should not have been moved, and how he located them and put them back where they belonged. He even pointed out where trees outside the cemetery had recently been cut down by a local utility company but were not removed. He talked about sorting through it, separating brush from usable firewood, and how once done he would post on Facebook that it was free to pick up and use.

“It’s going to be a lot of work, but someone needs to do it,” Sam said. He is not just worried about the appearance of this debris, but how it poses a fire risk to the cemetery.

In fact, Sam has spent so much time at the cemetery, that when someone needs to pick out a plot for a family member who has passed, Sam can tell you from memory where other members of that family are buried, which spots are open, where a loved one may not want to be buried, and where a new family may want to bury someone to leave space for others in the family when they pass on. He can also tell you where gravesites are “reserved” for other family members such as spouses or children.

“The past few months, I have not been able to get out here as often as I like because I had been taking care of Mom,” Sam explained. His mother, Aida, was ill and passed away in October. “Hopefully I can get back at it soon, because I look at this place, and it looks horrible.”

Also, it should be noted that Sam’s parents were cremated and their ashes buried elsewhere, so this selfless act is not even based on his family’s final resting place. All around Arizona we have non-perpetual care, neglected or even abandoned cemeteries. Because of Sam’s generous soul, Kearny Cemetery maintains its beauty and tranquility.

Sam Horton has taken on the Kearny Cemetery as his special project.
