Virginia Mayo and a Mammoth Ranch

By John Hernandez
Special to Copper Area News

The famous actress Virginia Mayo and her husband, Michael O'Shea owned a 6,000-acre ranch just outside of the Town of Mammoth. The ranch was purchased in 1950 then leased and finally sold some time in the mid-1950s. It became the Nevitt Ranch which is now owned by the Nature Conservancy. Virginia and Michael were originally looking for a ranch in Oracle but found that prices were high as owners were speculating on property values with the impending purchase of land by Magma Copper Company for the townsite of what became San Manuel.

In the late 1940s and early 1950s, Virginia Mayo was one of the biggest box-office draws at the movies. She appeared in the 1940s Oscar-winning The Best Years of Our Lives and the classic gangster film White Heat with James Cagney. She made numerous films and appeared with actors Danny Kaye, Bob Hope, Burt Lancaster, George Raft, Gregory Peck, Joel McCrea, Alan Ladd, Kirk Douglas and Ronald Reagan.

She met her husband Michael O'Shea in 1943 when they co-starred in the movie Jack London. O'Shea was married at the time to Grace Watts and had two children. They would divorce in 1947 and Michael would marry Virginia the same year. They would stay married until O'Shea's death in 1973. O'Shea's acting career lasted from the 1940s through the 1960s. Although he appeared as a supporting actor most of his career, he starred in some film noir pictures and had his own television comedy series, It's a Great Life, 1954 - 1956.

Randy Verdugo of Mammoth Lumber says he heard stories about Virginia Mayo visiting with his grandmother when she came into Mammoth.

Reggie Ramsay of Oracle remembers seeing Virginia Mayo at the Blue Mist Motel in Florence, Arizona back in the 1950s. Reggie was attending high school in Florence back then. He said that he had hoped she would use the motel pool so he could catch a glimpse of her in her bathing suit.

Chuck Davis, a former resident of Mammoth in the 1950s knew the O'Sheas as a young boy. Chuck's parents owned the Mammoth Mercantile grocery store. It was there that Chuck met Michael O'Shea. The O'Sheas also hosted his family at their ranch where Chuck rode one of

Hollywood Holiday Shoppers

"Here's the way to handle a six-gun, Virginia," Michael O'Shea tells his wife, Virginia Mayo. After pointing out features of the gun, he showed her the way the gun was put to use by some of Hollywood's cowboy stars. The film capital couple came to Arizona to buy a ranch, but ended up doing their Christmas shopping. Looking on is John True, manager of the sporting goods department at Steinfeld's. By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Copper Area News

For those who follow high school sports, especially in the Copper Corridor and surrounding areas, it has never been a secret: 2A San Carlos has always been a powerhouse when it comes to basketball.

Late last month, Superior

The Panthers started off the tournament with a game against Dischii'bihokh. The boys came out with a close victory and a final score of 25-24.

The next game they played was against Miami, which ended in a tough loss, and a final score of 32-62.

To close out the first day, the boys took on San Carlos. It was a tough played game, but the Panthers fell short by 10 points in the 41-51 point game.

The boys started the second day with a game against Globe. The Panthers came out of the cage with heat, and claimed the victory for their first game, the final score was 53-48.

The following game they met back up with San Carlos. This time the boys dominated the game, claiming the win with a huge score of 78-25.

The last game of the tournament was another repeat, this time against Miami. The boys were only able to score 39 points, while Miami scored 73 points.

The Superior girls basketball team also competed in the Copper Cities Tournament.

The Lady Panthers started off the tournament with a game against San Carlos. The girls suffered a tough loss, with a final score of 2-84. The last game they played for the first day was against Globe, which ended with a 12-42 final score.

CASA VOLUNTEER

has the necessary services and a voice in their future!

“As a CASA in Gila County, it is a privilege to provide assistance to a child who is going through the most unstable moment of their life,” said CASA Gail Pechuli. “I am humbled to serve as their advocate in their dependency proceedings.”

“We are eager to welcome Gail to the CASA Program in Southern Gila County,” said Emily Nader, coordinator for CASA of Gila County. “As we enter the 2024 year, we continue to have a high need for volunteers like her, to serve the number of children we have in foster care. Our volunteers provide the child with a voice, with a consistent adult, and with hope!”

The CASA program in the southern part of Gila County is in dire need of additional volunteers. The program welcomes community members to apply today. There is no specific degree or experience needed to become a CASA volunteer. Volunteers must be 21 years of age or older, a U.S. citizen, and pass a thorough screening process. All training for the position is provided at no cost to the volunteer.

CASA volunteers provide a valuable service to judges and become a consistent person in the life of a child while in foster care. If you are interested in more information, please visit www.CASAofGilaCounty.org or call 928-402-4427.

- Vegetation trimming and removal.
- Mill existing AC surfacing.
- Blend millings into existing base material
- Shape roadway profile and cross slope and compact base material.

NEED: The Towns of Hayden and Winkelman own South Golf Course Boulevard and Quarelli Street, respectively. These roadways provide access to an area central to recreational and outdoor activities including the Hayden Public Golf Course, Bobby Bracamonte Little League Field, Hastings Park and Winkelman Flats Park which serve Hayden, Winkelman and the Copper Basin Community. A PARA Pre-Scoping Study was completed in 2015. The Towns identified the need for street improvements due to the condition of the existing facility and rising safety concerns. The existing pavement is in visibly poor condition with cracking and deterioration of roadway edges along both South Golf Course Road and Quarelli Street for the extents of the project limits. Additional issues of the existing transportation facility include varying roadway widths; lack of pavement markings; lack of pedestrian pathway/sidewalks in most areas; lack of roadway/pedestrian lighting; and minimal signing.

LOCATION: Towns of Winkelman and Hayden, Gila County AZ

Mammoth Memories: Chuck Davis

By John Hernandez
Special to Copper Area

Chuck Davis is a former resident of Mammoth where his parents owned the Davis Mercantile. He has recently shared some of his memories of growing up in Mammoth during the 1940s and '50s on some Facebook pages. The following remembrance includes a story about a famous Hollywood couple that owned a ranch just outside Mammoth. This ranch would later become the Nevitt ranch. Here is Chuck's story:

Davis Mercantile burned to the ground in 1953. I firmly remember standing with dad and mom in the middle of the night, still in night clothes, speechless, staring at the roaring destruction from their bedroom window. The family business, owned and operated by my parents, Al and Clyde Davis, became a jumble of ashes, charred lumber, and mounds of collapsed adobe walls. The stench of scorched and rotting produce and meat fouled the air and depressed us. A small grocery store a few buildings south was soon purchased by my parents and became a temporary market while the Mercantile was rebuilt. If my memory is accurate, I think the store had been Barton's Market.

Our new building of cinder block on a concrete floor was nice and smelled fresh...as new concrete does. Out front, a building

length concrete floored porch with a shady roof completed the new Davis Mammoth Mercantile's welcoming personality. On that porch Michael O'Shea taught me how to wear my hat. "The brim," he instructed, "must be no more than the width of two fingers above the top of your nose. That's the way real cowboys do it." He took my hand placed my index and middle finger together, situated them, settled the brim down accurately and said, "there." I didn't know the man, just that he and his wife were new to the area. I didn't know then that Michael O'Shea was a successful Hollywood character actor or his pretty wife, actress Virginia Mayo, was the top box office attraction of the 1940s.

He was a nice man. They were a nice couple. Who cared if he and his movie star wife were big time Hollywood movie stars. To me, a non-star struck kid, they were just nice regular adults living on a ranch several miles north of town between the highway and the river bed.

On a warm Sunday afternoon our family clambered onto dad's huge 1920s vintage American La France firetruck and paid our new neighbors a visit. They had a horse, a big, retired, high-spirited thoroughbred racer. Mr. O'Shea saddled the pretty, long-legged mare and boosted me aboard.

The stirrups were too long for my short legs, my feet dangled. Then, for whatever reason, the mare spooked and ran hard for a nearby mesquite thicket, where she stopped suddenly before I would have been swept off by low limbs. At age 12, I was a helpless horse handling novice. I released the reins and gripped the saddle horn for my life's sake until the mare stopped in the thicket. No harm was done.

When calm returned, reassurance took over, stirrups were adjusted, panic was history, and I rode on thanks to the calm demeanor of Michael O'Shea. After that minor ordeal it became a pleasant Mammoth afternoon at the movie star's ranch.

VIRGINIA MAYO

their horses. In the following Mammoth Memories story, written by Chuck, he talks about the adventurous ride and his interactions with the O'Sheas. He also shares his memory of the family store being burned down. Following this fire, Chuck's dad, Al Davis, bought a fire engine and helped found the Mammoth Volunteer Fire Department.

Author's Note: Special thanks to Chuck Davis and his wife Trisha for allowing the use of his story and for this bit of Mammoth history that I was not aware of.
