

The art of growing mushrooms - Oracle businessman takes hobby to next level

By Nathaniel A. Lopez Copper Area News

There's a FungusUmungUs!

Eric Harmon is the owner of this gourmet and medicinal mushroom company. Eric is a retired educator and wrestling coach, working up in northern Arizona for more than 16 years. It was during the pandemic when Eric began his interest in growing mushrooms, which he took up as hobby originally. During February, Eric decided it was time to make his hobby into something more.

"Even when I was hobbying it, I was taking my mushrooms out to restaurants, seeing what the interest was and that sort of thing. I mean, even as a hobby, I always wondered about how would this work," he said.

"Gourmet and medicinal mushrooms seem to be growing in popularity at an exponential rate. Much research is being done regarding the health benefits of several varieties of mushrooms. Research suggests that various mushrooms boost immune health, repair and support neural pathways, and are powerful anti-cancer agents. Growing gourmet and medicinal mushrooms is exciting and intellectually challenging. All the species that I grow are wood-loving mushrooms or saprophytes. Growing mushrooms involves several steps and the final material that they grow on is called a fruiting block. My fruiting blocks are made from oak sawdust and soybean hulls. No fertilizers or chemicals are ever needed," Eric explained. "I expect to have four species of mushrooms for sale at this farmers market. I will have lion's mane, snowy white oyster, pink oyster and lots of blue oyster mushrooms. The other species of mushrooms that I have in various stages of cultivation are king oyster mushrooms, black pearl king oyster mushrooms, chestnut mushrooms, shitake mushrooms pioppino mushrooms, and reishi mushrooms. I expect to introduce value added products like grow kits, tinctures and powders by the end of summer and hope to have a website up and running by that time as well. My mission is to make high quality gourmet and medicinal mushrooms accessible for people in my local area and to share my newly found passion for fungus among us."

FungusUmungUs can be found at the Oracle Patio Cafe, in the market and in use on the menu. It can also be found at the Oracle Farmers Market on Wednesdays. They will also be featured during a Dinner With Dave, a no-menu, $60 a person dinner on June 14, that will feature their mushrooms in all of the courses. Eric also plans to get his mushrooms into Simply Something Market in San Manuel. He's also been spotted at the San Man Street Market on the first Saturday in the parking lot nsurprisingly, she followed him in passing by only 17

Unsurprisingly, she followed him in passing by only 17 days.

Like many women before and after her, most of her activity centered around maintaining a home and managing a family. In fact, many of her years were dedicated to raising her younger siblings, six children of her own and eventually several of her grandchildren, making a lasting impact on those around her for generations to come.

It would be a disservice to remember her simply as a caregiver. She was hard-working and determined. She and Fred built their dream home "rock by rock", and she actually provided much of the necessary physical labor while Fred was at work in the mines. She was a lifelong learner, an avid reader, and the Sanchez home was always full of magazines, books and newspapers. She was a gracious volunteer with her time, teaching catechism for several years and after Fred's retirement, spending her summers as a camp host in the Apache Sitgreaves National Forest. She was an excellent cook and showed her love for those around her by feeding them. The smell of fresh tortillas on the comal will forever invoke her memory. Even in her later years, as her health began to wane, you couldn't visit her without being asked if you were hungry and offering to cook you something.

grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; and eight great-great-grandchildren with two more on the way.

She was our sister, our mother, our grandmother, our great-grandmother – a true matriarch – and she was deeply loved and will be greatly missed.

Services will be held at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church in Mammoth, AZ.

Education Forward Arizona and Freeport-McMoRan launch new workforce development initiative; application deadline is June 21

Education Forward Arizona has teamed up with Freeport-McMoRan to engage ambitious individuals through an innovative new scholarship and job placement initiative.

The Guarantee Your Future with Freeport program will support 25 students and provide education, training, a paid summer internship, and job placement in one of six critical technical areas. Students will earn a certificate or credential from a designated community college in Arizona.

This scholarship will cover education expenses (tuition, fees, books, etc.) and assist with other cost of attendance expenses (food, housing, transportation, etc.). Upon satisfying program and employment requirements, participants will be offered a full-time position at one of Freeport-McMoRan's nine copper and molybdenum mining operations in Arizona, Colorado or New Mexico having committed to work for the company for three years.

When chosen, participants in this new workforce development program will begin classes in August 2024 to earn a certification in one of six areas vital to the mining industry:

- Diesel technician
- Industrial electrical
- Process control/instrumentation technology
- Fixed plant maintenance/advanced manufacturing
- · Heavy equipment operations
- Welder

Participants must be 18 years or older at time of employment with Freeport-McMoRan. The deadline to apply is Friday, June 21.

"At Freeport-McMoRan, we recognize the challenges posed by the ongoing workforce shortage across many industries, including our own, and we are committed to finding innovative solutions to address the gap," said Tracy Bame, president of the Freeport-McMoRan Foundation and Director of Social Responsibility at Freeport-McMoRan.

"This program not only addresses our immediate workforce needs but also lays the groundwork for long-term success by investing in the development of local talent in the communities where we operate. We are particularly focused on reaching underserved and non-traditional populations to increase access to education and quality employment opportunities. We know that education is the strongest lever we have for increasing socio-economic opportunity and mobility for everyone. Investing in education and training beyond high school is critical for the resilience and prosperity of Arizona."

To ensure student success, each scholarship recipient will be paired with an Education Forward Arizona Success Coach, as well as a mentor from Freeport-McMoRan. Training will continue during a paid summer internship where participants will get real-world experience in the industry.

"It's an honor to join forces once again with Freeport-McMoRan to launch the Guarantee Your Future with Freeport program," said Rich Nickel, President and CEO at Education Forward Arizona. "This initiative is a testament to Freeport-McMoRan's commitment to fostering economic growth and opportunity in Arizona and beyond. We are proud to partner with a company that prioritizes scholarships for students in need, workforce development and the value of investing in education. Together, we are empowering individuals to gain the skills they need to thrive in high-demand industries while building a stronger, more resilient Arizona workforce for the future."

The program is open to anyone interested in learning new in-demand skills for well-paid jobs who are willing to go to school at one of the designated community colleges in Arizona.

The launch of this workforce development initiative builds upon a longstanding relationship between Education Forward Arizona and Freeport-McMoRan, which includes the successful administration of the Freeport-McMoRan Native American Scholarship Program. Guarantee Your Future with Freeport builds on their previous $9 million investment aimed at increasing access to higher education for Native American students. Through this program, Education Forward Arizona has supported hundreds of Native American

Union members ratify threeyear agreement with Asarco

The United Steelworkers (USW) last week said that union members have overwhelmingly approved a new, threeyear labor agreement with Asarco.

"The new labor agreement provides unprecedented wage increases to a broad spectrum of jobs, from laborers to operators to diesel-electric technicians—raising some rates by as much as 27 percent," said USW District 12 Director Gaylan Prescott, who chaired negotiations for the unions' Unified Bargaining Committee. "The new contract provides opportunities for even higher earnings by adding new skills and qualifications, such as advanced welding credentials and earth moving machinery."

In addition to wage improvements, the new contract provides additional time off, with numerous vacation and holiday improvements for workers. It lowers workers healthcare contributions and ensures that so-called "fatigue monitoring systems" are used to make work safer and not simply more supervised.

USW Local 886 President Greg Romero, representing one of the six local unions at the negotiating table with Asarco, said that workers should be proud.

"These are historic gains for the workers in the Copper Triangle," Romero said. "As a lifelong resident of the area, we know from history that we are unstoppable when we are united."

USW Sub-District Director Fernando Terrazas, also a longtime union leader with family history in the area, added that workers depend on solidarity with each other to gain contract improvements.

"Asarco has a job to do, mine copper and maximize profit. Our job is to force companies to consider their workers' interests," Terrazas said. "Without a union, it's every man or woman for themselves, and employers love those odds."

The USW (www.usw.org) represents 850,000 workers employed in manufacturing, metals, mining, pulp and paper, rubber, chemicals, glass, auto supply and the energy-producing industries, along with a growing number of workers in tech, public sector and service occupations.

A special election will be held in Ray Unified School District No. 3 of Pinal County, Arizona (the "District"), on November 5, 2024. Maintenance and Operation Budget that includes an amount of up to 10% in excess of the District's revenue control limit for the fiscal year 2025/2026 and for six subsequent years (subject to certain reductions provided by statute in years six and seven). The District's current budget override is by law required to be reduced by one-third in each of the next two fiscal years. Because the existing override reduces by one-third in fiscal year 2025/2026, the proposed override budget will exceed the 2025/2026 alternate budget by one-third of the override amount (approximately $113,508) and the District's secondary tax rate required to fund this amount is estimated to be $0.27 per one hundred dollars of net assessed valuation for secondary property tax purposes. The full budget override amount is estimated to be $340,524 and would be funded by an estimated $0.81 tax rate per one hundred dollars of net assessed valuation, which is approximately equal to the current tax rate levied for the existing override. In future years the amount of the increase will be as provided by law. The election will be held at the following polling places:

Vietnam Memorial in San Manuel - Part 2

By Nathaniel A. Lopez Copper Area News

There is a history behind the Vietnam Memorial that sits at the bottom of San Manuel, honoring the seven fallen heroes from the Tri-Community.

Bill Haro is a US Army Veteran, who voluntarily enlisted in 1969, receiving an honorable discharge as an Artillery Sergeant E-5. He was the driving force behind the creation of the memorial honoring the Tri-Community's fallen sons.

Bill gladly shared the process of getting the memorial created. In July 2017, after retiring from driving 18 wheelers, Bill visited San Manuel High School, looking to see the memoriam plaque that was erected at the base of a flagpole around 1973. What he had found, was that the plaque had been located to behind a door near the cafeteria. Deciding that this placement was unacceptable, the sign was removed and taken to Tucson, where a stone engraver was able to add Tony Arriaga's name, as well as adding the heroes' ranks and KIA date. The Memoriam plaque now sits in the lobby of the school's gym, with the expenditure being covered by Bill and his monthly breakfast club, a group of friends he's had since the first grade: Joey Starman, Jimmy Garcia, Robert Skelton, Johnny Hernandez and John Huntington.

"I decided at that point I would construct the Vietnam Memorial. Start-up funding came from Stephani Bateman Beneitone. Stephani's brother Mark is in the Memorial. I assembled some craftsman: Ron Wood, Carpenter; Eddie Bonner, Tinsmith; and Artists Debra Large Foster and Connie R Crosby, Mike Dedrick, Billy Haro, Frank Martinez. The Memorial was completed in 2018 and on Memorial Day we had a dedication ceremony wherein we dedicated it to the Gold Star Families. Each were represented by family members," mentioned Bill Haro, "I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Norman Garrett or Tony Arriaga, however I went to school with Mark, Johnny, Arthur, Allen and Gary. Allen and I were best friends and I was the last one to see him when he shipped off to Nam. We stayed out all night until it was time for his parents to drive him to the airport."

Bill has tried to keep a low-profile on this as he knows the memorial is about honoring our seven fallen heroes. As the community looks to the future, it is almost just as important to understand the past the community holds and find ways to honor it.

They were sons. Brothers. Uncles. Friends. Boys, really. They grew up playing in the streets of San Manuel, Oracle, Mammoth and Tiger. They were athletes, students, classmates.

And when their country called for their service, they didn't hesitate. They left their homes and their families behind and were sent to the front lines in Vietnam.
