Billie Jo Villaverde and the Superior Dance Co. prepare to perform during a Phoenix Mercury game.

Debbie Torres | CANP

Superior Dance Co. taking the NBA, WNBA by storm

Local dancers of the Superior Dance Company had the crowds at two major basketball games on their feet cheering!

When Superior Dance Company director Billie Jo Villaverde contacted a Phoenix Suns account executive about performing at an upcoming Suns game, they asked what type of dance they would be performing.

"I gave them an option: Baile Folklorico, Selena, or Hip-Hop," Villaverde said. "He liked the idea that we had options, but said they always have folklorico dancing and although it is a crowd favorite, they haven't had a Selena Tribute performance."

After sending him photos of their Dia de Los Muertos performance showing all the girls wearing their Selena costumes, he was floored!

"He especially liked the purple costumes and thought it would be perfect for 'La Cultura night' with purple being a major color in the Suns background, our purple costumes would stand out," Villaverde said. "He gave me a schedule and I picked one of the biggest games in March (the month Selena passed away in 1995) to use as a celebration of her life."

It was the Phoenix Suns vs. Boston Celtics.

After their performance, the Suns rep said they were one of their top performances of the season and asked if they would be interested in dancing at a Phoenix Mercury game.

"Of course, I said yes!" Villaverde said. "When their season schedule came out, he called me and I had first pick."

She chose the biggest game of their regular season: Caitlin Clark and the Indiana Fever at Phoenix Mercury in June.

When the rep asked what the kids would be performing, Villaverde was emphatic.

"I said we are going to bring the house down with Hip-Hop! Even though my current dancers hadn't performed a hip-hop routine, I knew they were going to deliver a great performance!"

SDC started a Hip-Hop dance camp and soon Villaverde had dancers coming every week, not just from Superior, but driving from Miami, Kearny, and Mesa for class. The energy was high and these dancers couldn't wait for freestyle, to show off what

OBITUARY

Kenneth 'Ken' Edward Vargas

Kenneth "Ken" Edward Vargas passed away Aug. 1, 2024, at the age of 66. He was born in Flagstaff, AZ on Sept. 28, 1959, to Coach Richard "Dickie" and Stella Flores Vargas. He was the second son of six boys followed by a sister at number seven. At the age of one, Ken and the Vargas family moved back to Miami, AZ where his dad, Dickie, accepted a teaching position with the Miami Unified School District. This is the point where the Vargas coaching legacy began.

Ken attended Miami schools, was Homecoming King, and graduated from MHS in 1977. Throughout his high school years, Ken played varsity basketball for three years, varsity football for a year and a half and devoted most of his high school off-time preparing himself physically for the basketball season.

Ken knew he wanted to coach basketball since he was in the second grade. What a vision for a seven-year-old! He spent a lot of his youth in the gym with his father, and his mother, Stella, always made sure he got to the YMCA on time and ready to play youth basketball. You could often find Ken shooting baskets at all hours at the Miami Gardens outdoor court. His selftraining included strapping his '64 Ford to his shoulders and using it as resistance as he pulled the weight to increase his strength and speed.

Some accomplishments in football include being named to the 1976 First Team All-Conference for the offensive roster; but Ken's place was on the basketball court. His honors included a 1975 Conference Championship, 1975 State Runners-Up title, named to the Second Team All-Conference in 1976, and in 1977, Ken was named to the First Team All-Conference.

Ken graduated from Northern Arizona University with degrees in Business Administration, Accounting, Secondary and Elementary Education, and minors in Math and Physical Education. Upon graduation in 1985, he accepted a junior high teaching position where he taught math and P.E. for 17 years at Lee Kornegay Junior High and was named Teacher of the Year in 1991. His lifelong dream of being a coach materialized as he became the seventh-grade basketball coach, winning 14 championships in 17 years.

Coach Vargas then moved to the high school, teaching math. He coached with his father for his first year and moved to the varsity position three years later. During his 17 years as head coach, Ken won several runners-up trophies for local tournaments, won five Conference Championships and was named Conference Coach of the Year four times. He was very humble but took pride in his "2015 Spirit of Cotton Fitzsimmons Award - for the Demonstration of the Best Qualities of a Coach" award.

He cared deeply for all his students, often coming in before school, during lunch and after school to tutor math. His place was in the classroom and that is where he felt he made a difference. Ken often spent time just visiting with students that needed some extra encouragement or just needed time to talk. In the quiet of his heart, he bought shoes, meals, clothes, and even took beds for athletes who did not have a bed to sleep in. Ken was an exemplary coworker, and because of his tenure, he was often called on for advice and guidance, always willing to help.

On Dec. 16, 2023, "Vandal Gym" was renamed to "Vargas Gymnasium" by the MHS Alumni Association and MUSD in honor of Coaches Dickie and Ken Vargas. These two Miami High graduates had 89 combined years of teaching and 71 years of coaching the Miami Vandal Basketball programs.

Ken is survived by his wife of 45 years, Evelyn; children, Aubrie Vargas-York (Ben), Ana Vargas-Tarango (Michael) and Andrew (Sydnie); grandchildren, Brooklyn and Braxtin Gameros, Isaiah and Aubrey Tarango, and Dierks, Eisley, Remy, and Timber Vargas; brothers, Lenny (Clydene), Richard, Steve (Angela) and Chris; and sisters-in-law, Penny Remodini and Becky Guadiana.

Services for Ken Vargas have been set for Friday, Aug. 16, at Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Church (OLBS) in Miami. Visitation begins at 9 a.m., Rosary at 10 a.m., with Mass of Christian Burial beginning at 10:30 p.m. Interment will take place at Pinal Mountain Cemetery in Central Heights and a luncheon to follow at OLBS.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to the "Coach Kenny Vargas Athletic Food Fund." Mail check to P.O. Box 2070, Miami, AZ 85539 OR stop by the MUSD District Office at 4739 E. Ragus Road, Miami, AZ OR "Venmo" with the memo, "Coach Kenny Vargas Athletic Food Fund" to @Aubrie-Vargas.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Air Force announces its release of a Draft Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) to evaluate the potential environmental impacts of optimizing the special use airspace available to support Air Force missions in Arizona. The Air Force is soliciting comments on the Draft EIS and inviting all interested persons, agencies, or organizations to attend a public hearing. Concurrent with the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) process, the Air Force is conducting National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA) Section 106 consultation regarding the potential effects of the Proposed Action on historic properties. Information pertaining to NHPA Section 106 consultation will be displayed during the open-house portion of the public hearings, and subject matter experts will be available to explain this process and solicit public input on the effects of the Proposed Action on historic properties.

Proposed Action: The Air Force is proposing to alleviate training shortfalls and address evolving training needs by requesting that the Federal Aviation Administration implement regional airspace modifications to include: adjusting the times of use, adjusting the horizontal dimensions, adjusting the altitudes to support low-altitude training, authorizing supersonic training at lower altitudes, and authorizing the use of chaff and lowering the minimum release altitude for flares. The Proposed Action does not include the creation of new special use airspace or any changes at the installations (personnel, infrastructure, aircraft inventory, or airfield operations), changes to land use beneath the airspace, or weapons release. The special use airspace being addressed in the EIS is located throughout Arizona and a small area of western New Mexico. The Draft EIS is available for review and download on the project website (www.ArizonaRegionalAirspaceEIS.com) or a paper copy may be reviewed in the following local libraries (see website for all library repositories): Pinal County Library District – Superior Public Library and Globe Public Library.

Public Comments: Comments can be made at public hearings, submitted online at the project website (www.ArizonaRegionalAirspaceEIS.com), or by mailing to: Arizona Regional Airspace EIS, c/o Stantec, 501 Butler Farm Rd., Suite H, Hampton, VA 23666. they've learned, their own skill, their own style. Villaverde contacted Julian Morales to see if he could help show her dancers beginning breakdance and some freestyle tips. He attended several classes and the dancers began learning a lot from him.

"I also had a former dancer of mine, Andrea Silvas, make our hip-hop mix for our performance," Villaverde added. "I used to teach folklorico and hip-hop dance to Andrea when she was young. She performed at a couple of Mercury games, back when I took my group back in early 2000s. Now, her own mix would be playing throughout Footprint Arena for the next generation of SDC hip-hop dancers."

On the day of their Hip-Hop Pregame performance of the Mercury vs. Fever game, they took group pictures outside and the energy was electric! Once the dancers took the floor and the music came on, the arena erupted in cheers, whistles, and roars!

Superior Dance Company represented not just for Superior, but all our surrounding towns.

"Everyone was complimenting my dancers on a job well done," Villaverde said. "One dancer, who wants to dance like Usher when he grows up, asked if they were making all of that noise for him. I said you have so many fans now, Usher is going to want to dance like you! He was so happy and seeing my dancers happy, makes me happy. All my dancers performed their hearts out and the crowd loved it. They couldn't believe they were on the jumbotron, too!"

The Suns rep contacted Villaverde afterwards and extended an invitation to a Suns Group Appreciation Event to show how much they enjoyed having the Superior Dance Company and look forward to seeing their next performance, a baile folklorico one, this upcoming Suns season.

The next folklorico performance will be at the upcoming Prickly Pear Festival in Superior on Aug. 24 at 6 p.m. at Besich Park.
